SHEILA MILBERG HOUSE BEAUTIFUL 572 MADISON AVE NYK.

Dear Laura,

Feb. 1-68

I asked the Western Union to wire back to House Beautiful that you were in Yucatan and expected to return by Feb. 15th.
 I haven't known what to do about your mail. Best has looked it over and put it aside each time any has come, saying she felt sure there was nothing of importance. This has worried me, but I haven't wanted to get into any controversy with her, so have just let it go. I told her just now tho that I was writing to you about this telegram and asked her if she didn't think it would be a good idea for me either to send your letters on to you or for her to open them and see if there was anything I should inform you of. The only one we thought needed answering is from a Mrs. Colter of Los Alamos and is as follows:

"We are interested in having a family portrait taken. Do you take such appointments and what are your rates?" Am writing at once to let her know of your absence, etc.

Later she found two letters with checks, which I shall take down to the bank for deposit to your account. They are one from your cousin Isabelle for $100 and one from Maryzie M. Williams Santa Fe for $122⁴⁰. Please see back of letter from your
