Dear Laura:

Thanks for your letter of July 25. I am now leaving New York for a month and, therefore, this will be signed in my absence.

Last things first -- We are still holding Mrs. Curtis' material and hope to find the right spot for it in the future. We are also exploring with the New York Graphic Society a book utilizing the material, sections of which would be then run in the magazine.

As to your material, I'm passing your letter on to William Hale, the Managing Editor of HORIZON, and I'm confident he will be in touch with you in the not-too-distant future.

As to the INDIAN book, I'm amazed you haven't seen anything on it. We have sent out over six million pieces of promotion, and I guarantee you it will be on the best seller list by the middle of November, and your copy will be along with our compliments by the middle of November.

Pat and I remember fondly our stay in Santa Fe and look forward to getting out that way again soon.

With best regards.

Sincerely,

Peter
