Dear Laura:

I am very happy that we had a chance to see you and have supper. I am sorry that I did not get back to see the Yucatan photographs, but the week just became too crowded; and I regret not seeing them very much.

E. said that you might possibly have black and white photographs of the altar at Laguna. I know that Ernest Knee has some, but E. says it is almost impossible to get any from him. If you by any chance have an over-all shot and one of each of the three main panels -- that are suitable for study purposes -- I would appreciate knowing what you would charge us for prints of these. I was supposed to get to Laguna to examine the piece myself, but that was another of the things that did not come to pass last week.

I am looking forward to hearing from you and hope we will see you again before too long. Regards.

Sincerely,

G. F. Crabtree, Jr.
