Dear Mr. Drury:-

Your letter of August 20, was waiting for me when I returned from a two weeks trip, and then some busy days since my return. The mock-up of the folder is very good, but we do not like the sample stock you sent: neither color nor texture.

When this project was first initiated last May, I showed Mr. Hardyman a sample wich we liked. And in the mean time I have found a stock which we like better still. I do not have a sample but here is the information.

STRATHMORE BEAU BRILLIANT
Riviera Rose, Cover Basis 65
size 25 x 38 or 25½ x 40

The Rydal Press of this city gets these papers out of Chicago. I do not know why they call this Rose, it is a deep (what I call) Indian Red. But in getting the information on this I checked it carefully to be sure I had the color correct.

The annual meeting of our organization is coming up Ocotober 1st and we must have this job complete by t at time. There have been endless delays both by the Vergara Press here, who are making the plates, and your office who finished the first part of, the order very promptly, but there has been a long delay on this folder. Will you please advise me if you can obtain this stock and if there is any difference in the estimate given me by Mr. Hardyman. We must get this underway as soon as possible.

Very truly yours,
