I enclose Acheques, Laura, with grateful thanks for all your efforts - Which if you had a more co-operative, & less self-conscious, & model would do you more credit - The family expect too much - & are prejudiced Resides!
An attribute owed for the Camera to simulate - The prints are not here yet; but will be shortly, I am sure - And when if the model falls short of perfection, the composition of the photograph is all one could desire -

No hurry about the Print.
It's for Harry's Christmas present - It's a rare view of Hofa-bow River, & a treat to me - And maybe some day we will meet again -

Affectionately,
16
