Dear Miss Gilpin -

It is indeed encouraging to witness, in these days of an individual's loss of pride in work, one who still retains sufficient pride in accomplishment of a job well done. This reason alone is sufficient to make it impossible for me to keep the check in payment for your services, which you returned.

I must accept the responsibility for the picture, for it was through my haste and insistence that you did the work. Your established reputation assures me that these particular results are not to be associated with your field of endeavor.

Please accept the enclosed check if only for the inconvenience of a Sunday call. I shall be angry if you don't.

Sincerely,
Robert M. Jackson
