Dear Laura Gilpin:

How are you these days? I would like to see some of your photos for possible use in the new revised Encyclopedia of Photography that I am now working on.

You had an article on HISTORIC ARCHITECTURE PHOTOGRAPHY: THE SOUTHWEST. In the new edition I want just one article on the subject to cover any locality. Could you revise your article to include a more universal slant? I have photos from other localities that can be used besides your own. Would like to get new pictures from you for this article. If you can do this I will send you a clipping of your article and other material for background. There was another article on New England architecture, but this will be cut out. Some ideas from this article can be used in the one over-all article.

Would like to hear from you by return,

Sincerely,

Willard D. Morgan
