Dear Laura Gilpin:

Nice to hear from you and get the latest report on your doings. Your Navaho books sounds interesting. In your contract for this book you should put in a clause about remaining...to give you first chance to dispose of any books.

Barbara has been to California to see our son Lloyd get married. She will drop you a note about her department.

I sent you the Exposure Record charts and for good measure a copy of the Business Founding Date Directory...no charge.

I have not seen Strand's Italian book. Who is the publisher?

Ansel Adams has just finished a Polaroid Manual that I will get out this Fall.

Enclosing clippings of the Historic Architecture articles. I would like to combine everything into just one article on the subject under your name. The basic information will apply to other parts of the country and also other countries. In addition to photos you send with the revised article I can select a few from other localities to give the section a broader coverage.

Can you do this revise along with a selection of your photos for $100.00? Encyclopedia rates are not exorbitant.

The finished article should be ready about October 1, 1962.

Best,

Willard D. Morgan
