Dear Miss Tipton,

I have been no rush to receive the portfolio but, of course, am looking forward to seeing it when it does indeed arrive here. You will, of course, send me your statement of the balance due you -

I certainly did get to Window Rock and to, among other attractions in that vicinity, the Arts & Crafts Guild - I attended the Friday, Saturday, & Sunday of the Navajo Fair and had a truly fascinating experience - fried bread contests, the Indian Dances on Saturday night - the only thing I missed was the Baby Contest, but I did meet the young M.D. from the hospital at Gallup, one of the judges in ^{that} ~~the~~ ^{latter} contest, recently arrived in the Reservator from Philadelphia dressed in godskins (sp.), met him at Tanners (don't ask me which Mormon Tanner!) store between Gallup & Window Rock, at that intersection of highways -

Met Mr. Chase & Mr. Lindgren at the exhibit of the arts & Crafts Guild at the Navajo Fair -

Next year I expect to see alot of the Navajo Reservation itself, Monument Valley, Canyon de Chelly, the Hopi Reservation Bryce & Zion, & the North Arm of the Grand Canyon - all the foregoing to be sandwiched between the Ceremony at Gallup in early August and the Navajo Fair at Window Rock in early September! I looked for a glimpse of Tym, pickup, sleeping bag, & cameras, at Window Rock this year, but no luck Salp! Sincerely,
Mr. E.B. Adkins
