Dear Miss Widmayer:-

Your letter of the 23rd with the check for $850.00 enclosed, came yesterday. Thank you very much. I knew that something was causing the delay, and as I am often slow myself, I certainly understand.

I hope all your problems are resolved and that you are well underway with your excellent magazine. I enjoyed the work for you, and hope that at some future time, I may do something more for you. I await the publication of the issue with the article about the James embroideries.

Sincerely yours,
