Dear Miss Gilpin:

We are preparing for publication a high school textbook on American history and are in need of some good quality color transparencies to illustrate the text. Your name was given us by Mr. Albert G. Ely, Acting Associate Director of the Museum of New Mexico. We had written to Mr. Ely requesting a good color transparency of the clay dish with fish design made by the Mimbres Indian tribe, circa 1100. We are also in need of the following:

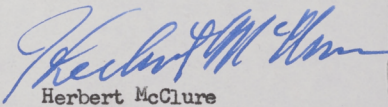

- 1-Taos pueblo, Taos, New Mexico (circa 16th century)
- 2-San Xavier del Bac Mission, Tucson, Arizona
- 3-Victorian mansion in Eureka, California
- 4-Southern plantation (like Greenwood in Louisiana)
- 5-Frank Lloyd Wright's Falling Water House in Bear Run, Pennsylvania, and
- 6-The clay dish with fish design (mentioned above) or some other example of very early American Indian art

Would you have good color transparencies of the above available? If so, we would appreciate receiving information as to the best method of securing the photos, and the fee expected for one-time editorial reproduction.

Thank you for any assistance you may give us with this project.

Cordially yours,

LAILAW BROTHERS
