Dear Miss Gilpin:

Thank you for your letter of March 7. We can not use the Quah Ah corn dance in color but would appreciate it if you could either loan us the transparency in order to make a black and white copy of it or make a copy of it yourself and send it on to us if you prefer. The other photograph you mention evidently does not show what Miss de Mille wants.

We would also like permission to reproduce in color the painting of the Yeibichai dance by Harrison Begay. We do not need the transparency for this as we still have the color plate for the American indian book.

Could you also send us the address of Dorothy Dunn Kramer in California, as we will have to obtain releases from her as well for the use of these photographs.

Thank you for your help in this matter.

Sincerely,

Sarah B. Worm
