

WESTERN

PRINTING AND LITHOGRAPHING CO. • 850 THIRD AVENUE, NEW YORK 22, NEW YORK

[OPERATING UNIT OF WESTERN PUBLISHING COMPANY, INC.]

April 5, 1963

Miss Laura Gilpin
Box 1173
Santa Fe, New Mexico

RE: the forthcoming QUIZ ME INDIANS being prepared by Artists and Writers Press, Inc. (subsidiary) being published by Golden Press, Inc. (affiliate)

Dear Miss Gilpin:

Would you be able to send us the following material for possible publication in the above title:

Color transparency for the illustration pictured in the attached photostat taken from p. 138t of THE AMERICAN INDIAN by Oliver La Farge, and shows a "Sun Dance" Cheyenne-Arapaho version. The painting was in the collection of Mrs. Charles Dietrich. Could you tell us who owns the picture now, so that we might secure permission for the reproduction, and could you send us the transparency in the meantime, as we urgently need it.

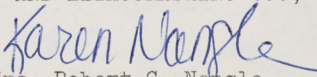

We look forward to hearing from you shortly. Thank you for your attention.

Please let us know when you send the photographs how much you expect to be paid for non exclusive world reproduction rights, the credit line you would like us to use and whether or not you require us to return black and white photographs after we have finished with them. If we should decide to use any of the pictures you send us, we will be sure to notify you requesting formal permission for publication as well as verifying the terms under which your consent has been granted.

We will be grateful for whatever pictures you can send us and hope that if you can not supply them yourself that you will be able to suggest another source. We will look forward to hearing from you in the near future.

Sincerely yours,

WESTERN PRINTING AND LITHOGRAPHING CO., INC.

Mrs. Robert C. Nangle
Picture Research

RACINE, WIS. • POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y. • CAMBRIDGE, MD. • ST. LOUIS, MO. • HANNIBAL, MO.

Mrs Charles Dickrich-

"Sun Dance," a painting by a modern Indian showing the Cheyenne-Arapaho version of this great ceremony. The artist has clearly shown the Indians' outlook on the