Dear Miss Gilpin:

Due to a change in personnel there has been a slight mix-up regarding picture permissions.

On August 19th we requested permission from you for Editions Graphiques Internationales, a foreign affiliate, to reproduce the following photographic material in their forthcoming book IMAGES DU MONDE - Book 8:

Navaho woman at her loom.
(originally reproduced on p. 207b.r,
THE AMERICAN INDIAN).

As this request was unnecessary, would you be good enough to disregard it and, if you have already granted the permission, would you please void the release.

Sincerely,

Barbara Nebenzahl
