

OCTOBER 1, 1963

Dear Miss Gelpin;

Perhaps this letter will never get to you, but at least I tried.

I have to tell you what a wonderful book "The Rio Grande" is. Such beautiful, clear photography. I have seen sections of the Rio Grande in Texas, New Mexico and Colorado, but never wondered about it, except for the source. Always I wonder about the source of a river. We spent a night in Silverton never knowing we were so close to it,

Now I am pestering the librarian to get the other two camera Chronicles -

"The Pueblos" and "Temples in Yucatan."

Thank you for some very enjoyable evenings
with your books.

Sincerely,
Mrs. A. Schumann
