Dear Miss Gilpin:

We heard from Cosmopolitan Magazine today that they intend to do a feature article on our shop. They have asked us to supply them with a photograph of Maria Martinez and also one of Lucy Lewis. I am hoping that we can buy these from you and that you can send us at least one copy right away.

Also when you have other photographs of Indian artists and craftsmen available we would be very interested in seeing them so we can make a selection.

I have not forgotten about the clothes for students at the Institute of American Indian Arts and I will be sending you a box before the Fall.

Sincerely,

Ronda Muschenheim
