Dear Miss Chamberlin:-

Thank you very much indeed for calling me back just now. I am wondering if you even had time to open the box let alone look at the contents. I really thnik I should take this up with the Express Co., for the agent here told me personally when I took the box down for shipment that it w uld reach San Francisco on the 20th. I doubted that there would be anyone at your office on Saturday, but was certain that you should have received the shipment the first thing Monday morning. I have my reciept showing date and time of shipment, do you have any sort of a memo as to the time of its delivery? If you do have, I would appreciate your sending it to me so that I can make a necessary complaint. It was sent air express.

I am sorry that I missed talking to Mr. Brower personally, and I do hope that the next time he comes to Santa Fe, I may have the pleasure of meeting him.

I shall let you know the minute the box is returned, and I am sorry if my concern has caused you any inconvenience. I somhow felt that something had slipped up when I had heard nothing whatever from your office.

Cordially
