Dear Mr. Hundley:-

Please pardon my delay in answering your letter, but I am working against a deadline on a Navaho book that has been long in the making.

Yes, I have other pictures than the ones I used in my Rio Grande, I am not sure that I have anything of a before and after nature, however. I will go through my negatives at the very earliest possible moment. I might have prints but this is doubtful. I must get over to Window Rock the very first of next week, to get some last facts that I need, and will try to do this before I go so that I can at least give you some idea of what I have. I would certainly like to see the area below the Falcon dam since that was completed. I always wanted to do a story on the little town of Guerrero before it was submerged, but I didnt seem to be able to sell anyone on the idea. It was a most charming little town.

Thank you for your kind words about my Rio Grande. I am hoping that with the publication of my Navaho book, I can stir another publisher to reprint and get out a third edition. I still have lots of demands for it.

Thanking you for your inquiry, and assuring you that I will get at this in the next few days, I am

Sincerely yours,
