

We lived in this house since 1923 & saw Clarence White's work. Knew all the houses along these blocks. The Rhinelanders row with the iron work balconies were just east of me & now the city has bought them & built a nice looking modern yellow faced school -

I'll give K. Hobson your message, & see her from time to time —

Cordially

Reba F. Moore

The Geogs always use first names to each other, even if sight unseen —

140 WEST 11TH STREET
NEW YORK 11

Jan 24 65

Dear Laura Gilpin:

you probably had a note from Elizabeth D's sister. I know you were close to Elin and take the liberty of writing after talking with her brother in law tonight. Her heart is strong & that keeps her going. She is in & out of a coma, in no pain & doesn't know she has cancer.
Mr Barney says it is only a matter of time now.
So sad. I don't if ever a note is read to her —