Dear Laura:

I should like to take this occasion to thank you formally for relinquishing the photographic rights to the pictures which were reproduced for us as post cards portraying the Museum of Navaho Ceremonial Art and specimens thereof, by the Dexter Press.

Your gesture, in terms of cash evaluation, amounts to one hundred dollars ($100.00) for the current year. In reference to your relationship to this museum, it makes you a Guarantor member. As such, you are entitled to deduct the amount indicated from your income tax accounts.

Your membership card is inclosed. This is for use in attending Museum functions which will be held from time to time. It also entitles you to make use of our library and research facilities, and allows you a ten percent discount on items which the Museum has for sale.

Kindest regards and best wishes.

Most sincerely yours,

Bertha P. Dutton
