Dear Sirs:-

regarding the recent communication I had from you about the increase in monthly payments due to the forth coming increase in taxes, I have reached the decission that I would rather take care of any tax increase outside of my loan whenever it comes due. However, I would like to take out the insurance you offered a short time ago which would increase the payments to $95. a month, an increase of $3.00.

Will you kindly put this into effect and if there is anything to sign perhaps it had best be done by mail as Miss Forster is not able to come down to the bank.

I enclose the May payment of $92. plus the $3. for the insurance.

Very truly yours,

P.S. Please note that I have given up my Post Office box and am now receiving my mail at our home address.
