Dear Miss Gilpin,

I wonder if you would lecture on writing for the Panhandle Penwomen Ass. on January 24, 1967? The lecture would be for about a forty five minute period. Then that evening there would be an informal writing group that you would meet with.

Your fee would be eighty five dollars. Ed Roberts has told me so much about you. It would be a great pleasure to have you here, and I think you would enjoy it.

The Panhandle Penwomen group are selling writers a number of whom are novelists.

Will you let me know if you can accept this date at your earliest convenience.

Cordially,

Alice Puckett
