Santa Fe, New Mexico

Dear Miss Gilpin:

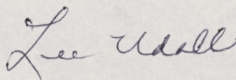

I was delighted to have the opportunity to see you in Santa Fe but regret that we didn't have time to have a real visit. I thought the whole day went extremely well, and Mrs. Johnson thoroughly enjoyed her visit to the Institute and the following day at San Ildefonso Pueblo.

With regard to scheduling your exhibition for our Gallery, we feel that April or May of 1967 would be best for us. We must reserve November through January for our annual invitational, and have nothing scheduled beyond that.

Congratulations on the publication of your book, The Enduring Navajo. I can imagine what an exciting year this must be for you.

With all best wishes,

Sincerely,
