Dear Miss Gilpin:

Mr. Wilder is out of town and asked me to write you that so far as he knows, the book is with the faculty committee at the University of Texas Press. That is where it has to go, and he thinks everything is "fine and dandy" from what Mr. Wardlaw had said to him earlier. Mr. Wilder will return later this week and will keep you posted on any developments.

We were all distressed to hear that your hip is giving more trouble, and sincerely hope that the new medicine will be effective and something that you can tolerate. Do let us know.

Best wishes from all of us.

Sincerely,

(Miss) Virginia Whipple
Secretary to Mr. Wilder
