Dear Laura:

Just a note to be certain that you understand we are planning a dinner party for the Indian Arts Fund folk on Wednesday evening, the 26th. Consequently, we hope you will be in well in advance of dinner time.

I have had a telegram from Gene Hodge this morning assuring me that she will be coming, so all the necessary accommodations have been reserved unless, of course, there are some last minute extras, and even then I think we have one or two rooms as a cushion. Therefore, anyone who wishes to come, please assure them we will be ready.

Try again to convince Betty that she should be with us.

In case I have not mentioned it, the airport limousine from Dallas will take you directly to the Green Oaks Inn.

Yours,

Mitchell A. Wilder
Director
