Laura dear:

Looking through a House Beautiful Magazine I came across a charming article by you - with perfectly lovely photographs - about Georgia O'Leary and her house. It made me wish all over again that you and I were not so many miles apart. I feel we are real sisters under the skin, as they say. I loved you so much on our brief encounter, and still do.
Remember our Thanksgiving together - how good you were to me - and the present the next Sunday? With part of the money from the Audubon article (did you see Nat. and Mag. - Jan - Feb?) I splurged and bought Eliot Porter's beautiful SUMMER ISLAND. Please give them both my love when you see them. Also dear Betsy. And how is she now?

I want to hear about you.
Are you still on crutches? What a nuisance! I think of you as so active and energetic.
Remember that marvellous chuckle that you found the keys to - and our trip to Taos, and the magpies?

You were so good to me - and I shall love you always.

Virginia celebrated her 75th birthday - in good health - with 30 of her family at Atlantic City. I go to my Wellesley 25th in June!
