Dear Laura:

I have a copy of Frank Wardlaw's letter to you, and while I know the delay is a disappointment, I am not surprised. Our schedule for the Frederic Remington catalogue of the museum collection has also been kicked along to next year because of Meriden Gravure, so it did not come as news. On the other hand, I am happy that Frank is thinking about Meriden, but hope that he is also investigating the European possibilities.

If all goes well, I will try to work out a schedule which would coincide with his visit to Santa Fe.

Fond greetings to you and to Betsy.

Yours,

Mitchell A. Wilder
Director
