Dear Miss Gilpin:

Mrs. Allen and I were so pleased to get the inscribed copy of The Enduring Navaho which Mr. Hugo brought back from Fort Worth. The book in itself is a fine addition to our library but your note makes it so much more personally valuable to us.

What we like especially is the force and truth of your work. There are no tricks used to bring the stunning views of nature and views of the people who have made their lives in these surroundings.

I hope the book gets the reception it deserves and that you feel the satisfaction of a work well done. Our Christmas greetings.

Sincerely,

Parker B. Allen
