Dear Mr. Den Dooven:-

Here are the pictures you requested by phone last Friday. The ones of both San Felipe and Santo Domingo are air shots. You may well know that photography is taboo at both Pueblos. I made these some years ago when I was on an assignment for something else. I have never used them. I hope they will answer your purpose.

I am enclosing other material as well. Both a summer and winter deer dance at Teseque; a corn dance (north side) and women's bow and arrow dance at San Ildefonso. These are all black and white.

Then there are some additional color shots. The two you requested, San Ildefonso (south side) with the round kiva. Corn Dance. Also a buffalo dance (south side). Then a corn dance at San Ildefonso (north side).. Also a Comanche dance and an animal dance from Teseque. I trust that all of these will give you sufficient to choose from.

Thanking you for the call, and I hope that these will meet your requirements.

Very truly yours,
