Dear Ms. Gilpin:

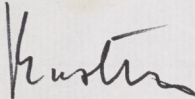

One of your photographs printed several years ago in an issue of House Beautiful magazine has stayed in my mind. It was a shot of the fireplace in Georgia O'Keeffe's house at Abiquiu.

Would it be possible to obtain a print of it, and if so, what would be the cost?

There would be no reproduction of any sorts involved...I'd just like to hang it on my non-adobe wall.

I'm looking forward to your book The Enduring Navaho...
I've admired your work for many years.

Very truly,
