Dear Laura,

I have just received a review copy of THE ENDURING NAVAHO sent, I am sure, at your suggestion. I am delighted that the book has finally been published and I congratulate you upon this superb piece of work.

Just by coincidence, I was doing some research on the 1920s and came across in Photograms of the Year 1920, your photograph of the prairie with the remark how much better the picture would be if there was a bison in the foreground!

Nancy joins me in wishing you all best for the New Year.

Sincerely,

Beaumont
