Dear Laura:

Just a line to inquire re. the big enlargements. If they are being shipped, do you know the date, etc.? I am trying to wind up matters for the fiscal year in the museum, which closes out the end of September, and if possible would like to pay for them in this period. This is not imperative, of course, but tends to simplify some of our bookkeeping and carry-overs from one budget to the other always call for footnote explanations.

If necessary, please give me a call and/or call the gentleman in California who is making the enlargements.

Best to you.

Sincerely,

Mitch
