Dear Laura:

Just a line to let you know that plans for the exhibition at the Riverside Museum all seem to be going forward nicely. Mrs. Farb has written stating that they will plan to open on February 23 and we will, of course, supply them with the necessary checklist of the photographs, etc.

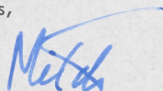

All the enlargements are in and Miss Eleanor Wilkinson, a local photographer, has been spotting for us. Jim is rehanging the gallery and I am shifting the pictures around in order to get all the big pictures up and the smaller duplicates out of the way.

Do you now wish to have me send on all the duplicate material to you. I assume that this show as it will finally be constituted in our gallery will be the show that travels. So soon as the job has been completed, I will send you a checklist of exactly how the show hangs. Also, some snaps showing the exhibition on the wall.

Mrs. Farb has also asked for publicity material and announcements, etc., etc. If you have copies of your other publicity, could you take care of this and send them along to her. I will see that she receives a copy of the Fort Worth story as well as one to you.

The show has had a grand reception from the public with many favorable comments. We are very fortunate to have it and to have you, so come back often. Fond greetings to you and Betsy for Christmas Day.

Yours,

Mitchell A. Wilder
