Dear Laura Gilpin

Our daughter purchased one of your books and brought it to show her Dad.

Chuck saw his picture and the book. Said, "he had been waiting all these years for you to send him an autographed copy of your book."

I kept after Chuck to write to you and ask if you had forgotten you promised a autographed copy.

The book is wonderful, I though I would like to buy one with your personalization for Mrs. Bruce M. Barnard. She is living in El Paso & I see her at least once a time a year. I would make
