

creeps along - (The light in my kitchen ceiling has just gone out, & is so high.) I'll have to hunt a tall man - tho the top of the step ladder didn't bother me before.

I hope Betty is comfortable, & you can be free of anxiety about her - Give her my best - & do come to see me!

Much love, treasured friend, from

Dear Laura:

I'm so glad your award proceeding went off well - & wish I could have been there - and I'm still hoping you will come up, & say me a visit soon! I may possibly be tripping Eastward the last of July - I'm still not sure - but I might go, with a cousin, to Scandinavia! And I want a visit with you -

A recent delivery was your picture in a W. of Chicago Bulletin, with a moving story.

I'm sure you've seen it - I thought a good article, too - Mine is on loan at the minute - can't remember the author's names - - A bit of sadness, Miriam Hartwell, & Miriam Adams died recently - a great release from misery for each of them - M.
Adams had cancer, M. Hartwell - everything!

If I go tripping it will be July 25 - Aug. 20th & any other time would be grand to have you come - before, if possible, if not, later - You could have a downstairs room, & be "family" - No extra pulls - My living gets simpler, & simpler, as age
