Mrs. Oriole Farb,
Riverside Museum,
New York, N.Y.,

Dear Mrs. Farb:-

A hasty note to tell you that things have finally worked out in Washington. The new regime in the Dept. of Interior did not want any hang over from the previous administration, so my show there is being moved to the Institute of Contemporary Art. I am very much afraid that this has been very hard on Mrs. Udall for which I am deeply sorry. The show now will not open until March 8th. As they very definitely want me there this will mean a change of my plans for coming East.

As you are not having an "opening", I think I shall have to wait until about March first to go on. Also I need every moment I can get to work on this show of show, for I still have quite a few prints to make. I am just so slow and I have not yet learned to adjust my thinking in terms of my physical inabilities. I trust that this will not affect you in any way and I still plan to come on up to New York shortly after March 8th.

I enclose a price list on prints in case there should be an inquiry.

With warm greetings,
