Dear Mr. Kostka:

My very humble apologies for being so long in answering your letter, but I have been very much involved with the publication of my book and the opening of the exhibition in Fort Worth, Texas.

Yes, I have the transparency of the fireplace in Georgia O'Keeffe's house. I can have a print made of this and I will mount it and send it on to you. As I am dictating this letter away from my desk, I do not have the color laboratory's price schedule here, but will add it in a postscript.

I hope you have seen The Enduring Navaho, as you have mentioned it, and I hope that it meets with your approval.

Very truly yours,

Laura Gilpin
