Dear Mrs Peterson:-

It is shameful that I have been so long in answering your nice letter of Sept. 30th, but there are unfortunately reasons for my slowness. I just couldnt possibly prepare anything for you for an October 15th deadline. Then I have been very much involved with an exhibition which had to be ready to bring up to Colorado Springs where I am at this moment. I will be going home next week, Nov. 6th, and will at least send you a picture or two for your next issue of the Western Review. I doubt that I could have time to do an article for you before Christmas, as I always have a lot of christmas work, but I could later if you should wish it.

I am always interested in what you are doing, though I have not subscribed to the Review. There are just too many publications one wants to keep up with these days.

Thank you so much for your inquiry, and I hope you will forgive my long delay.

Most sincerely
