Dear Steve:

Enclosed please find my check for $31.50 for three more books. Two Indian traders have shown up to whom I promised a copy long ago and I must fulfill these promises.

From all I hear, the book seems to be going very well. Both the Villagra and the Paper Book Gallery have just reordered, so I hear, and this is hopeful that the book will continue to move. I saw Mr. Wardlaw at Oklahoma City and he seemed to be satisfied with the way it was going. I do want to call your attention to the erratum slips, which seem to be missing from the last orders to both of these stores here and in one lot there was the slip for some other book, not mine. I know that they have been printed, because one lot came through with the slips enclosed.

Are you coming this way any time in the near future? I hope to get over on the reservation sometime in June and am very anxious to know the list of places over there which have ordered books from you.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Laura Gilpin
