Dear Mr. Shalkop:-

Mrs. Udall was here a day or two ago and is pleased to have this collection shown in Colorado springs. So, I am planning to come up next Sunday and will bring the cases down to you the first thing on Monday morning, the 27th. I hope that this will give you time enough and ofcourse I shall be glad to help in any way I can.

As to a title for the show, this is difficult. But here is the contents:-

An exhibition of photographs by Laura Gilpin, of Indian subject matter covering more than forty years of work in the Southwest and in Yucatan, Mexico. The collection belongs to

THE CENTER FOR ARTS OF INDIAN AMERICA.
WASHINGTON D.C.

Mrs. Stewart Udall, Executive Director.

Subject matter includes 17 prints Southwest Archeology. 32 prints Pueblo Indian
 59 prints Navaho
 27 prints Yucatan.
 135

83 prints mount size 16x20
52 prints mount size 14x18

Quite a lot of the 16x20 are large prints bleeds
The rest of the 16x20s are 11x14 prints mounted on 16x20 mounts. All the 14 x18 mounts are 8x10
prints.

The Collection is loaned by the Center for Arts of Indian America. Colo. Springs will be the first showing.

If you need any further information before I get up my phone is 505-982-0032.

I want to get this in the mail at once.
Hastily
