Dear Mrs. Watson:

It was good to hear from you and to know that you are enjoying The Enduring Navaho, and it is nice to know that you found friends within its pages. I am delighted that you are to review the book, or perhaps have already done so, for The Navajo Times, and I would appreciate it if you would send me a copy.

Life seems to be pretty busy for me and I am sorry to tell you that I am on crutches these days and do not get around very much, and it seems to take me a long time to do all the things that need to be done.

I am particularly interested to hear news of Shirley Sells and to know that she is working again in archaeological matters. If you come to Santa Fe, please give me a ring and I hope that we can have a visit. Perhaps when warm weather comes along, I may be able to get over for a quick trip.

With my best wishes,

Sincerely,

Laura Gilpin
