

much abides still of the land and the people we all came to love and respect.

Thank you so much for preserving it for us in your beautiful book.

Warmest greetings and affectionate regards,

Dear Laura and Miss Betsy,

It's only at this holiday season that we have had the opportunity to peruse at leisure your wonderful book on the Navajo.

It has given us much joy to read about them and to see the marvelous pictures.
It took us to places and people that long ago became a part of us and refreshed our spirit by the recollection.
So much has been changed during the past few years,
