Dear Miss Gilpin:

I must apologise for my delay in answering your letters. Am enclosing invoices for the enlargements for the Amon Carter Museum and the Washington Show.

I have invoiced you for all the prints at the price of single weight enlargements. The prints were all made on double weight paper and are of exhibition quality and should be billed at at least double this price.

However, I was interested in seeing that your work received the best technical handling and that the enlargements would be of the finest possible quality, and therefore did not change the prices quoted to you.

I regret that I will not be able to offer these prices ^{for} any work except ~~these~~ ^{what} being billed directly to you.

I know you must have received your negatives and prints by now. I have forwarded the two unmounted prints (Covered Wagon and Summer hogan) via parcel post.

It has been a pleasure to do these exhibits for you. Am looking forward to your visit.

Cordially,

Irwin Welcher
