Dear Laura:

I have been away for the Trustees meeting so am late in answering yours of the 20th. Many thanks for the Hagerman photographs. These are beautiful prints and we are delighted to have them. I have forwarded your bill for these to the business office for payment.

We have not received any credit from the photographer in San Francisco for failing to spot the prints. Therefore, I think you could certainly ask for a reduction in the total bill. Although the delay in shipment was no fault of the photographer, I certainly think that the Emery people should cancel the charge. However, no one thinks of indemnifying people for failure to perform a service.

I am delighted that you went to the Cowboy Hall of Fame awards meeting. Let me know how it all went.

Terribly sorry to hear that Secretary Hickel is so narrow-minded as to cancel exhibitions. No one seems to have much faith in his judgment, and he continues to get himself on the hot seat.

All the best to you.

Yours,

Mitchell A. Wilder
