Dear Mr. Adkins:-

For many weeks I have trying to get a letter off to you and somehow I never seem to get my desk cleared. And since Jan 1, I have had a bout with pneumonia and since that I seem to follow the line of least resistance.

After many months I have finally heard from my cousin about the Cassidy painting. He does want to sell it. I had him send me a polaroid copy whcih is a very poor one, but I think it will give you an idea of it. As I remeber it, it is a good Cassidy. The color is beautifl and the light on the far distant red cliffs is luminous and lovely. The size about twenty four by thirty inches. I have shown this print to one person who knows Cassidy work well, and she valued it at about $3500. Said it would be more if sold through a dealer.

If you are interested, I can have Bob send it to me and you can see it here sometime when you are over. I hope that you will like it and that it may fill a place in your collection.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,
