Dear Miss Gilpin:

I have thought of you many times since my visit in your home last July and have wondered how you are progressing on my order for three of your photographs. You will remember two were black and white; one of the Navaho sheep herders with their flock and horses with the shiprock on the distant skyline. The other was one of your fine aerial views in black and white of Canyon. The third was a color print of the sheep herders, as found following page 96 in your book "The Enduring Navaho".

I need to come to Santa Fe the first part of December and wish to know if I could receive the pictures at that time.

We have finished our office remodeling and have a very special place to display your fine photography to our advantage.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Cordially,

James S. Guleke
