

Nov. 7, 1970

Dear Laura,

A friend of mine in New York City saw your Enduring Navaho in my library — and brought a copy for his own shelves. He was so much impressed by it — I told him about your problems with the Boston exhibit. So now today comes this clipping from him out of the Times Literary Supplement — London. He thought you'd like to have it. Hope all goes well with you.

June Sturken