Dear Miss Gilpin:

I was extremely distressed to receive your letter of October 15. I realize that I have been most lax in not returning your photographs, which I will do immediately, but I had not realized that you had not yet been paid for your expenses!

At this point, I think I know what may have happened. Do you have all the copies of the purchase order that I filled out? If so, than there was no copy turned in to our accounting department for payment. If such is the case, please remove the top sheet and retain it for your files, and send the remaining sheets to me. I assure you that payment will be made immediately. If you only have one copy of the order, please retain it and so notify me. The bill sent with your letter will be used to write your check.

I am sorry that this mix-up has occurred, and will straighten things out as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Kent M. Bush
Curator
