Dear Miss Sulzberger:

The prints of the copies of the Indian painting went off to Mr. Burckhard ~~in~~ Switzerland immediately after he talked to you. I trust they reached him and everything is okay. I made a couple of extra prints just in case anything went wrong in the mail. I enclose a statement for these.

I am wondering if you are related to the author of A Long Row of Candles. I thought this a most interesting book and enjoyed it thoroughly.

With best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Laura Gilpin
