My dear Miss Gilpin,

Your marvelous photographic prints arrived today in perfect condition. We have enclosed our check for your previous card. Thank you for mailing them. We tried three times to make the trip this winter to Santa Fe during your exhibit. Would you consider an exhibit at the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum on the campus of West Texas State University at Canyon, Texas? If so, please advise me of your interest as I am a member of the executive committee.

In mounting the two black & whites we used glass sheet with no frame and a rustic rough textured narrow frame on the color print. They will hang together on one wall. We look forward to your visit to us. Thank you again. Wish to see you in Santa Fe.
Cordially, Jim Gulike

Christmas, 1970

One of the blessings of Christmas is given to us all in the custom of exchanging warm greetings thus kindling the bonds of friendship.

"Goodwill to all men" has venerated the calendar of time and brought balance to a less quiet world, calming hostility born on personal grudge, fed on greed between men, among men, and among nations.

Remembering the Spirit of Christmas causes us to pause in silence and wish you and your family the true Blessings of Christmas forevermore.
